TENSION IS MOUNTING OVER NATION'S SPREADING LABOR STRIFE WITH 2 MILLION IDLE

Strike List Bulges as Hundreds of Thousands of Workers Are Forced Off Jobs By Rapidly Expanding Disputes

DEADLOCK APPEARS IN CHICAGO CONFERENCE

BULLETIN

Chicago, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Edgar L. Warren, new U. S. conciliation chief, personally entered the oil strike conciliation conference today "at the request of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach," he said. Warren spoke only briefly with reporters before entering the conference chambers where since Tuesday labor and management representatives had been deadlocked in efforts to settle a 12-day strike that threatens to extend to involve 250,000 workers. Some 35,000 are on strike now. "I am here at the request of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach," Warren told reporters. Earlier Justice William L. Knous, chairman of the three-member conciliation panel conducting the conferences, said the labor secretary had informed him indirectly he felt "great concern" over the deadlock.

By The Associated Press

Tension mounted over the nation's spreading labor strife today as the army of idle workers over labor disputes skyrocketed to near the two million mark.

The over-all labor dispute was the worst in months. The strike list, below the 100,000 mark most of the year preceding V-J Day, bulged as hundreds of thousands of workers were forced off their jobs by disputes, some of them fresh outbreaks.

A quick survey along the troubled labor front showed:

More than 1,850,000 workers off their jobs, some 370,000 idle by strikes, the others hit indirectly by the stoppages.

An apparent deadlock appeared in the Chicago conference of Oil Industry and CIO union leaders with federal conciliators amidst threats of a nation-wide strike of oil workers which would add 250,000 more to the strike lines. Some 35,000 workers are on strike in seven states, demanding a 30 per cent wage increase.

For the fourth day New York City struggled in the grip of a single strike which paralyzed business and industrial activity at an estimated loss of millions of dollars in trade and wages, and inconvenienced hundreds of thousands. The strike by about 15,000 AFL elevator operators and building service employees threatened to spread.

New Moves Made To Settle Disputes In Pennsylvania

By The Associated Press

Two of Pennsylvania's work stoppages ended today, with 2,200 men agreeing to return to their jobs.

New moves were made to settle disputes which kept another 73,000 workers idle.

The Pennsylvania Rubber Company at Jeannette announced its 2,000 employees voted last night to end their 22-day-old walk-out and resume production of auto tires. The company said it would arbitrate the dismissal of one worker, which led to the strike.

Employes of the Conestoga Transportation Co., at Lancaster voted 96-4 to accept an agreement worked out in management-labor conferences. The decision ended a 26-day disruption of bus and trolley service in the community and removed threat of a general "labor holiday" by 20,000 AFL and CIO Workers in Lancaster county.

In the soft coal fields of western Pennsylvania, 52 mines were idle and 24,820 men were jobless in walkouts springing from the strike of a few hundred supervisory employees demanding recognition of the United Clerical, Technical and Supervisory Employees of the Mining Industry, a UMWA affiliate.

Another 6,360 in 19 mines were idle for the same reason in nearby West Virginia, although three small mines there, employing 900, returned to work.

At Youngstown, Ohio, the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., said its coke oven operations were cut 75 per cent because of coal and fuel oil shortages. The company announced closing of three blast furnaces and seven open hearths and said its Messmer operations

Scores Rounded Up In Argentina

By VAUGHAN BRYANT

Buenos Aires, Sept. 27. (AP)—Jails swallowed up leaders of every shade of opposition to Argentina's military government today while Argentines from the Atlantic to the Andes waited to see what further steps would be taken to carry out a state of siege.

Squads of federal police with long lists of wanted persons systematically covered this capital of 2,500,000 as the dragnet tightened here and elsewhere over the country.

The decree which deprives Argentines of their civil rights came unexpectedly as the climax to a period of mounting opposition to the military regime of President Gen. Edelmiro Farrell and Col. Juan Peron, vice president and strong man of Argentina. It followed by 24 hours the suppression of an uprising by the military garrison at Cordoba.

Similar action suspending constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech, press and assembly was taken in 1941, but the siege was lifted last July, when Farrell promised to call a general election before the end of the year.

One-Third of Increasing Meat Supply To Be Ration-Free

Washington, Sept. 27. (AP)—One-third of the increasing meat supply will be ration-free beginning Sunday.

The OPA formally announced today that from Sunday through October 27 no points will be required for lower grades of beef, veal and lamb.

Also ration-free will be ham, bacon and veal patties and all cheaper cuts of all grades of meat. These include such cuts as short ribs and brisket of beef, breast and flank of lamb and shank of lamb.

Points are being eliminated, too, on all canned meats, sausages, frankfurters, luncheon varieties and all other products made from lower grades of meat. These grades are utility, caper and cutter beef, and utility and cut veal and lamb.

This will leave on the ration list at current point values all pork cuts, bacon and other cured meats, the choice cuts of beef, veal and lamb of top grades—such as steaks, roasts and chops—and butter, margarine and other fats and oils.

The usual monthly allotment of 50 red points will become valid next Monday. The new stamps, in ration book four, are R1, S1, T1, U1 and V1. Stamps V2, W2, X2, Y2 and Z2 expire Sunday.

Points on canned fish are being trimmed two to three points a pound.

OPA said it was in agreement with the agriculture department that rationing of pork and the three top grades of beef, veal and lamb (AA, A and B) must be continued.

According to the agricultural department, civilians during October will have total of 1,502,700,000 pounds of meat, as compared with 1,352,000,000 pounds this month. This is an increase of 11.15 per cent.

OPA said that supplies of butter, margarine, lard and cooking and salad oils have improved, but not enough to warrant a cut in point values. The agency noted, however, that because a number of meat cuts will be ration-free, housewives will have more points for fats and oils.

The usual monthly allotment of 50 red points will become valid next Monday. The new stamps, in ration book four, are R1, S1, T1, U1 and V1. Stamps V2, W2, X2, Y2 and Z2 expire Sunday.

American Killed In Saigon Rioting

By VERN HAUGLAND

Saigon, Indochina, Sept. 26. (Delayed)—(AP)—Lt. Col. A. Peter Dewey of Washington, D. C., was killed and Capt. Joseph Coolidge of New Hampshire was seriously wounded by Annamites in disorders today.

The American officers, defending U. S. Headquarters from a siege of three hours, killed at least eight men.

British, French and Japanese also suffered casualties in a series of incidents. As a result of the continued disorders, Field Marshal Count Juichi Terauchi, the Japanese commander, was placed under virtual arrest.

Dewey, about 28, headed the American Office of Strategic Services delegation here. His wife and daughter live in Washington. A Yale graduate and a former Chicago Daily News Correspondent, he was the son of a former financial adviser to the Polish government.

Friends said that Coolidge, 28, (home town unstated) is a distant cousin of former President Coolidge. Although seriously wounded, he was expected to survive.

HOUSE ASKED BY PRESIDENT TO BACK BILL

Truman Tells Committee Democrats That Senate "Let Him Down" On Pay Liberalization

STANDS PAT ON ISSUE

Washington, Sept. 27.—(AP)—President Truman told house ways and means committee Democrats today that the senate had "let him down" on jobless pay liberalization and that he did not expect the house to do so.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross, who talked with Mr. Truman after the president pleaded with 12 ways and means committee Democrats to reconsider the committee's 14 to 10 vote to shelve the legislation indefinitely, told reporters:

"The president spoke vigorously. He said he stood pat on 26 weeks and $25 (weekly) for unemployment compensation."

"He said the senate let him down and he expected the house not to do so."

"He said his views were fully outlined in his message to congress and he stood by them."

Previously, Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the committee refused to tell reporters about the conference, saying the president called it and it was up to him to talk.

Asked whether the committee would have another meeting to reconsider its vote, Doughton replied: "If the committee wants it."

Four members of the president's own party joined 10 Republicans Tuesday in a coalition that shelved all legislation to liberalize unemployment benefits through federal supplements to state-administered programs.

A Democrat offered the motion that "indefinitely postponed" further consideration. Rep. Knutson of Minnesota, senior ways and means Republican, said the coalition put aside the jobless aid legislation because widespread strikes had obscured the unemployment problem.

Washington, Sept. 27.—(AP)—American officials working out plans to help Britain are said to day to favor a loan of $5,000,000. It would be at very low interest rate and without strings or where the money would be spent.

Whether a plan along this line will be presented to congress will depend on further Anglo-American negotiations and formal acceptance of the idea by the London and Washington governments.

Trade talks that have been underway here several weeks still are in the stage of exploring just what Britain's financial troubles are and exactly what help may be needed. Nevertheless, opinion among American negotiators is fairly well formed on the main points.

Thus, on the word of fully-informed authorities it is possible that the situation today stands as follows:

The essence of Britain's trouble is that she has to exist for the next three years or more while re-converting is profitable peacetime trade.

SEARCH RESUMED FOR DROWNING VICTIM

Erle, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Coast guards planned to resume search today for the body of Howard Kidder, Girard railroad worker, one of two men drowned early yesterday in Lake Erie at the mouth of Elk creek.

The body of the other victim, Samuel Hannah, about 40, of North Girard, was recovered three hours after a strong current from the creek capsized their boat.

Deputy Coroner Seeley Campbell said he believed the two men were caught in a whirlpool and drowned immediately.

A third occupant of the small craft, Mrs. Beatrice Kidder, wife of one of the victims, saved herself by clinging to the boat until she reached shallow water.

Ruling Gives Franchise To War Veterans

Harrisburg, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Many Pennsylvania war veterans who are now or soon will be civilians may be able to bypass the Sept. 15 deadline for registering and vote in the Nov. 6 municipal elections—if other counties follow.

Previously, the navy named 48 ships due in Atlantic coast ports on the same date.

Given at a hearing three weeks ago to determine the degree of guilt, Pepperman and West had entered pleas of guilty, placing themselves on the mercy of the court. They claimed they intended nothing more than the stealing of Campbell's car.

In their opinion read today, the court held that the men were guilty of first degree murder.

The date of execution is to be set by the governor. Meantime, the defense may take an appeal. At the hearing early this month, Commonwealth attorneys asked the death penalty, while the defense countered that capital punishment is "the taking of another life by brute force again."

Campbell was found slain August 5 in the secluded home where he lived alone four miles from here. The body was discovered by his socially-prominent daughter, Mrs. Robert Spencer Van Cleave.

State police claimed both men made statements admitting they beat Campbell and fled in his car.

PLANS TO IMPROVE STATE SANATORIA

Harrisburg, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Governor Martin approved today improvements costing $974,084 at Mont Alto and Cresson tuberculosis sanatoria as part of the commonwealth's $74,000,000 public works program.

Approval was announced by Dr. Harry W. Weest, secretary of health, who said funds for the work would come from a $10,325,000 appropriation to the department for construction of sanatoria and anti-stream pollution.

Friars said that Coolidge, 28, (home town unstated) is a distant cousin of former President Coolidge. Although seriously wounded, he was expected to survive.

Two Are Sentenced To Die In Electric Chair For Slaying Of Erie Industrialist Month Ago

Erle, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Robert W. Pepperman, 29, and John D. West, 27, both of Williamsport, were sentenced today to die in the electric chair for the killing of Joseph B. Campbell, 73-year-old retired industrialist.

The commonwealth charged the men beat Campbell to death with a bedroom slipper at his home near here early in August.

The men wept as sentence was pronounced by Judge J. Orin Waite after he and Judge Elmer L. Evans completed the study of testimony given at a hearing three weeks ago to determine the degree of guilt.

Pepperman and West had entered pleas of guilty, placing themselves on the mercy of the court. They claimed they intended nothing more than the stealing of Campbell's car.

Solution To Balkan Issue Believed Near

Deactivation Of 10th Army Ordered

London, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Foreign Ministers of the United States, Britain and Soviet Russia planned series of informal talks today amid unconfirmed reports that Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav M. Molotov was waiting word from Moscow which might clear the way toward a solution of the Balkan peace issue.

The army has remained on duty in the Ryukyu Island chain, commanded by Lt. Gen. Joseph Stillwell. He succeeded the late La. Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr., lifted in action near the close of the Okinawa battle.

The command formerly occupied by the Tenth Army will be passed to the Army Forces, Western Pacific. Regular army and low-point personnel of the Tenth will be assigned other duties in the Pacific.

The 43rd Division, which was active in the Philippines and now is part of the Eighth Army, is being reorganized, headquarters said, with an high point personnel from other organizations in the Pacific.

There were indications that unless U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Molotov were convinced of an absolute deadlock had been reached, they would keep the council in session until the Balkan peace issue.

The Tenth Army will be disbanded.

Youth Escapes Blaze In Bed Without Hurts

Virgil Fellows, 20, 10 Clark street, had a narrow escape from death from smoke fumes and fire this morning shortly before one o'clock. Fellows had gone to his room for the night using candles to light his way. Wax from the candles dripped onto a 2 x 4 on the plate around the building and ignited. Noting the smoke and fire Fellows extinguished it. Later after he had gotten into bed and had fallen asleep other members of the family smelled smoke and investigated.

They found that the bed covering was smouldering and giving off dense smoke and that flames would have soon started. Fellows was roused and a fire alarm was turned in. Firemen extinguished the fire with little loss.

The house is a two family affair owned by the county commissioners and owned by the family of Mrs. M. Madigan and that of Mrs. Earl Fellows.

There was little loss in the fire and practically none to the building.

Fire Chief Albaugh has drawn attention to conditions at the home by a letter sent today to the county commissioners.

Due to sugar shortage the work in the local center was slowed down, but so far there have been over 6,000 cans of various vegetables and fruits taken care of by women of this vicinity under instruction of the trained workers.

MERELY WAITING FOR TRAIN

Warren entertained a tourist last night and while it was not an overly good night from an atmospheric standpoint the visitor enjoyed himself and slept rather late. Enсlosed on one of the picnic tables in Crescent playgrounds he slumbered until dawn arrived. Nurses from the Hospital sighted him and phoned the cops. One gendarm hied to the spot and applied the hot foot. "Merely waiting for my train" explained the tourist with a thumb jerk toward the Pennsy tracks. "We'll climb the bank and get aboard" replied the copper and unwrapping himself from the newspapered coverlets the tourist sleepily murmured "Goodbye" and gathered up his impedimenta he climbed the bank. Two intoxicated citizens slumbered in the cells last night at the police station and this morning appeared to tell their troubles to Justice Greenlund.

Much Speculation Over Plans for New Bridge

Another feature of the placing of the bridge at FN tower would clear the way for river division trains to reach the proposed tunnel under the hill to Venturetown which would be required with the building of the Kinzua flood control dam. It would greatly facilitate movement of trains to the tunnel which would undoubtedly be a busy piece of trackage once the dam is in place.

The post war plans of the Pennsylvania railroad for the local divisions will undoubtedly cause some large developments as the war has pointed out the need of better facilities from Erie eastward by the Pennsylvania. Huge new ore and grain docks and other improvements are planned at Erie, all of which would cause more freight to flow over the local divisions and add to the demands for better facilities and the

Burtnette To Two-Day Fair Be In Altoona Set For Tiona After Monday During 1946

While the move is in the nature of a promotion and a return to his own home town, many friends and associates here will learn with regret that C. S. Burtnette, Western Union manager, has been transferred to Altoona effective October 1.

Mr. Burtnette, known to most of his friends as "Slim", came to Warren April 18, 1941 from Wheeling, W. Va., relieving W. A. Crow in the local office. He soon identified himself with many community affairs, principal of which were activities of First Lutheran church and of the Kiwanis Club.

He has served Kiwanis Club in many capacities, as a director, as chairman of the bulletins committee, and as member of attendance and publicity committees. Membership and active attendance at the church has included the presidency of Dr. Frantz' Sunday school class and participation in other church events. Another interest has been the YMCA Boy Scout Troop 7, which he served last year as Scoutmaster and of which he is now a troop committee man.

It is learned today that results of the 1945 fair were so very satisfactory that officials have decided to make the affair a two-day event in 1946.

At a meeting of the Tiona Community Fair Association held on Wednesday evening, the following officers and committee heads were elected for next year:

President, Flossie Schweitzer; vice president, Pearl McClellan; secretary, Ida Blanchard; treasurer, Fern Hannold; horse pulling contests, Steve Steele; tickets chairman, Mable Rapp; publicity, Myron Rapp; advertising, Kenneth Baldensperger; space allotment chairman, Betty Schweitzer.

Sponsoring units of this year's attraction are the Washington PTA, the Diamond Grange, Tiona Ladies' Aid and the Girl Scouts and Brownies. Each organization had representation present last evening to hear reports of this year's venture.

It is learned today that results of the 1945 fair were so very satisfactory that officials have decided to make the affair a two-day event in 1946.

REFORM OF AXIS POWERS GAINS MOMENTUM

DeWitt MacKenzie, Associated Press Foreign Affairs Writer
Emperor Hirohito's descent from his throne to present himself before Supreme Commander MacArthur—in effect an act of submission by a defeated head of state to his conqueror—ranks among the major events which are ushering in the new world era.

This unprecedented development may well serve to break the spell of imperial mysticism under which the Japanese have been ruled for 2,000 years by mikados to whom they have attributed divinity. It may herald the advent of rule by the people.

Imagine what the disclosure of this meeting will mean to the millions who never have dared even to raise their eyes to gaze directly upon their emperor. We see him arrive in his automobile at the American embassy, immaculate in morning suit and silk hat. His dignified grand chamberlain backs out of the car, head lowered and face towards the emperor, and bows the great personage out to the sidewalk.

And then we see the mikado, silk hat in hand, brought before MacArthur. The general is studiously garbed in ordinary field khaki. He even wears his shirt open at the throat, without a tie. And not one of his many medals is on him.

It's easy to believe that this may do much to shock medieval Japan out of its trance. Certainly it may be expected to spur the current talk of possible abdication by the mikado, or at least his abandonment of temporary power to make way for the inauguration of a popular form of government. This needn't disturb his position as spiritual head—if the people want him.

Along with this dramatic turn, we get other indications of Allied progress in consolidating our victory over Germany and Japan. The simultaneous actions of Generals MacArthur and Eisenhower in tightening up their occupation controls provide significant answers to recent sharp criticism at home and abroad that the aggressor nations are being given too soft a peace.

The developments in both cases are aimed at speeding up attainment of the chief Allied war aims. These were to render the enemy utterly impotent militarily, and at the same time to destroy the militaristic mentality which, in the case of Germany, encompasses Hitlerism. The physical defeat has been achieved, but the more difficult moral reform cannot be carried out until the two peoples have been made to understand that their countries have been smashed.

THE NEW CZAR

Christian Science Monitor

Eric Johnston is, perhaps, the world's most active advocate of democratic capitalism. Therefore, it is not strange to find him using his appointment as president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America as a platform for telling the world about it. As head of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, he has been a missionary for enlightened capitalism and he knows how to do the job.

The successor to Will Hays visualizes the American movie as evangelizing the world for "peace and better living." The industry learned during the war the value of co-operative effort. Now Mr. Johnston wants its integral parts to point, as a sort of industrial democracy, in telling the world what a wonderful system democratic America has. This, he implies, can be done best when there are no strikes or layoffs. For, Mr. Johnston says:

"We may as well face the fact that there are other political and economic systems in the world, wholly different from ours, but which do have mass appeal, especially during time of industrial strife and stagnation. The only way to prove our system is better is to make it better."

Businessman as he is, Mr. Johnston naturally sees the movies as "America's greatest salesman." But the most important job he can do with them is to reflect America as it is. Thus, in foreign cinema houses, Hollywood's chief product can really become "ambassadors of goodwill."

With winter just around the corner, whatever became of the suggestion that the city get a couple of sidewalk plows and give the pedestrians a treat on snowy mornings? If Jamestown can keep all of its sidewalks cleaned, why can't it be done here?

What It Means

By SIDNEY A. GOVENAR

WASHINGTON — The whaling industry, once an important factor in the growth of the United States, has disappeared from this country. The Fish and Wildlife Service of the Interior Department reports that not one American company holds a whaling license.

Once before, in 1942, the U.S. whaling industry disappeared, but in 1943 a shore station was established in California with three ships to supply it with whales. This station operated in 1944 but did not renew its license this year.

Norway is now the world's most important whaling nation, according to the Interior Department. Recently Foreign Minister Lise of Norway announced that his country's whaling industry will be resumed this season.

Lie said at least five whaling expeditions are scheduled from his country and one from England. England will use one floating whaling "factory" seized from the Germans. All the 12 "factories" it owned before the war were lost in the battle of the Atlantic.

Revival Is Possible
The Interior report adds that if new products and new uses for whales could be developed in the United States whaling might be revived here.

"Norway and other European countries refine and hydrogenate whale oil so that it can be used for edible purposes. A number of other new whale products developed in other countries might be cited," the report says.

In The United States, however, such products are made from other sources, and whaling is not profitable here in normal times even if whales were plentiful."

The whale has come "dangerously close to extinction," according to the Interior Department.

The petroleum industry took away the market for illuminating oil and lubricants. The steel industry took away the market for whalebone, used in manufacturing such articles as corsets, umbrellas, and whipskirts.

And there are now available in this country cheap substitutes for all but two products of the whale: spermaceti wax, used in cosmetics, and ambergris, a fixative in perfume.

U. S. Was Leader
Before the war Europe's whaling industry was minute by comparison with the whaling industry of this country in the middle of the last century. The U. S. industry then engaged some 735 ships and 40,000 men. It represented an investment of $40,000,000 and involved an annual take of whales worth about $8,000,000. "These figures," an Interior report says, "tell the story of the death of a great industry through three causes.

Committee Makes Community Party Plans for October

The Committee on Community Recreation met on Tuesday evening to make plans for the next community young people's party, which has previously been announced for Saturday night, October 13th. Georgia Spinney and Charles Cochner have been selected as co-chairmen in charge of the October community parties on the 13th and 27th. Bill Erickson and Barbara Benson head the parties for November and Betty Lou Hook and Bill Blair for December.

All of the preliminary plans are complete and sub-chairmen will be announced tomorrow for the October 13th party. The co-chairmen have called a meeting of all their chairmen for next Monday evening at 7:30 in the basement conference room of the Warren public library. It is important that everyone be present.

Because of the size of the crowd at Saturday night's Hill-Billy party, the committee decided that it would be imperative to divide the age groups, because the school cannot adequately accommodate such a large crowd. The gymnasium, both game rooms, and the square dancing room were filled to capacity all evening. Adults dropping in were somewhat overwhelmed at the response of the young people to the community night programs.

The next party will be limited to young people who are in the high school building and out of school young people in their early twenties. An effort will be made to accommodate the younger group at a later date.

Saturday's party, with its Hill-Billy theme, certainly drew a crowd of young people, many of them in costume. The decorating committee again hit just the right note, especially with John Erickson's and Dick Kaufman's perfect Hill-Billy family cutouts.

The young people declared Bill Dobbs' Orchestra was "super" as they crowded around watching the band perform or made good use of the music on the floor. Teresa Fino was mistress of ceremonies for the occasion. The committee wishes to thank all members of the orchestra for their contribution to the evening's success.

The square dancing demonstration and the special room for instruction really got the young people interested in square dancing Saturday night. The committee is especially appreciative of the efforts of the caller, H. P. Fitzgerald and the music by H. C. Anderson and his daughters who donated their services for the community party.

YWCA Enrollment Day Is Successful

The second annual Y. W. C. A. Membership Enrollment Day was held yesterday. A good number came for the afternoon tea hour from 3:30 to 5:30 and others for the evening hour from 7:00 to 9:00.

The membership committee chairmen, Mrs. Harold Smith and Mrs. Robert Trusler, report that 145 memberships have been taken care of to date, and that it is hoped others will mail theirs in promptly or bring them to the YWCA office by Saturday of this week.

An attractive tea table was arranged in the private dining room, with a pink chrysanthemum centerpiece flanked by white tapers. Other fall flowers were in evidence throughout the lobby, where members and friends were greeted. The suggestion box was used and it is hoped to fulfill the requested program ideas in the near future.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. who helped yesterday to make the second annual Membership Enrollment Day a success were Miss Eunice Alexander, Mrs. K. M. Andrews, Mrs. L. E. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Clawson, Mrs. C. P. DeLong, Mrs. Earl Fenderson, Mrs. J. P. Fenstermacher, Mrs. O. J. Groves, Mrs. L. J. Youngsville, Sept. 27—Mrs. Martin Schnell, Mrs. A. M. Schnell and Mrs. R. D. Olofson entertained at the Wilder clubhouse Saturday evening in honor of the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore A. Schnell. The room was prettily decorated with fall flowers and lighted candles.

At eight o'clock guests began to arrive and, after offering congratulations and best wishes to the couple, were seated for an appropriate program. Vocal music was furnished by Lester Larson, accompanied by Roger Brandt, both of Warren. Readings were given by Mrs. R. D. Olofson, of Jamestown, N. Y., followed by a "Mock Wedding" ceremony on the humorous side. The bride and groom were attended by Mrs. R. D. Olofson and Noyd Engstrom as of 25 years ago. R. D. Olofson took the part of the minister.

Following the social hour, light refreshments were served to about 50 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Schnell were the recipients of many lovely gifts, and departing guests wished them many more years of happiness.

BEHIND THE LINES

Basketball draws the largest number of attendees each year—more than baseball, softball, or any other sport. In pre-war years, the game, which has become highly modernized in the past five seasons, drew at least 90,000,000 paid attendees yearly, and the closest competitor was softball with an average yearly draw of 72 million. Game hunters form a very large percentage of the nation's sports followers, as do fishermen.

Speaking of basketball attendance, the Warren High 1944-45 court season drew top attendances. Not since the McKeegan-Wolfe-Zerbe combination performed for the Dragons have the Blue and Whitemen had such a large follow-to a 6-6 deadlock last Friday p.m.

Joe Scalise, whose probable discharge from the army has set high school basketball circles glowing, writes that he does not intend returning to high school if discharged. According to the ex-high scorer, he will enter college for further court trials.

The Warren Red Jackets will resume action in the fall of 1946. This announcement came yesterday from the management, which stated that, since many servicemen are being discharged and many more will be in the next ten months, prospects would be very good. It is possible that a six or seven-team league, wade up of semi-pro elevens from Bradford, Jamestown, Oil City, and other surrounding towns, would be formulated.

It will be a fight-to-the-finish Saturday afternoon on Russell Field when Oil City's Oilers come here for their annual set with the J. B. Leidigmen. After Saturday's return to Academy game form, the Dragons should be an equal match for the Venango county eleven which held Bradford

Cincinnati Main Factor In National Race; Cubs Protest Yesterday's Cardinal Victory

BY JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Cincinnati's forlorn Reds, a seventh-place ball club that never was a factor in the National League race, probably will decide the pennant duel between the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals.

Two games with the Rhinelanders today mean the difference between an early clinching or a last day finish for Charlie Grimm's Bruins. Three Saturday and Sunday date with the pesky Reds hold the key to Billy Southworth's hopes for a fourth straight St. Louis flag.

If the bow-beaten Cincys should kick over the traces and flatten the Cubs twice by the Cards whip the Buccos, Chicago's 1 1/2 game lead would melt into an all-even tie.

Grimm has protested yesterday's 11-6 loss to St. Louis on the ground that one umpire (Babe Pinelli) wasn't looking and another (Butch Henline) said he refused to change his mind despite an official reversal by umpire-in-chief Dusty Boddess, changing a double play into a St. Louis base hit.

After Whitley Kurowski opened the seventh inning with a single, Ray Sanders drove a long fly deep into right field that Bill Nicholson apparently caught as he hit the wall, dropped and caught again on the rebound. Kurowski had waited half way to second, to see whether the ball would be caught and then sped to second, waving Sanders back to first. Nicholson whipped the ball to second base.

An original decision ruled a double play, prompting a Cardinal protest, and a reversal gave Sanders a hit and placed both men on base, resulting in a long argument climaxed by Grimm's official protest.

Detroit polished off its home business for the year by splitting a pair with Cleveland, winning 11-0 behind Hal Newhouser, and losing 3-2 to Steve Gromek, an old Detroit boy.

The results assured the Tigers of a tie for first, even if they lose their final two at St. Louis Saturday and Sunday. Meanwhile, Washington continues to practice for a phantom foe, its only hope a double Brownie victory forcing a playoff Monday or Tuesday.

National League tilts found Brooklyn downing New York, 8-4, and Pittsburgh splitting a pair with Cincinnati. After the Reds had taken the opener, 5-2, behind freshman John Hetski, the Pirates evened matters, 2-1, for Nick Strinevich's 16th victory.

The Dodgers clinched at least a tie for third by their triumph over the Giants.

Over 200 Tons of Tin Cans
Collected In Final Pickup

"It was one of the fastest tin can pickups in the history of the drives that have sent 17 carloads of the much needed tin cans to the cannery plant at Neville Island," said Salvage Chairman Wylie Corbett this morning commenting on yesterday's drive.

There were plenty of workers including men from various plants about the city and eleven Boy Scouts. The entire area was covered in about two hours due to the many trucks that had been donated. Mr. Corbett this morning stated that the cans were processed just a little better than usual and that when loaded into the huge freight car, tramped and shook down over 20 tons were in the car. It was the biggest car ever shipped from Warren.

The whole county took part in the drive and highway trucks brought in large numbers of cans. Some came from as far away as Forest county and Ludlow where the cans had not been moved. Mr. Corbett goes after the salvage material wherever it may be and some tin cans were even gathered up in Spartansburg.

This will be the final tin can drive. The need is great but due to the fact that the State Salvage Group is passing out of existence on October 1st, the county groups will be unable to continue to function.

However in many sections of the state the salvage work will be carried on by various organizations as it has been discovered just how much money can be realized from the sale of waste paper, rags, etc. There are reports that in this county one or two groups are preparing to carry on the work.

Mr. Corbett is preparing to assemble some valuable data showing how much work has been accomplished by his committee during the war years. Over 2000 carloads of salvaged materials were shipped and the cash income has been over half a million dollars which has been widely distributed over the county saving thousands of dollars for school districts, etc.

TENSION IS MOUNTING OVER NATION'S SPREADING LABOR STRIFE WITH 2 MILLION IDLE

Strike List Bulges as Hundreds of Thousands of Workers Are Forced Off Jobs By Rapidly Expanding Disputes

BULLETIN

Chicago, Sept. 27.—(P)—Edgar L. Warren, new U. S. conciliation chief, personally entered the oil strike conciliation conference today "at the request of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach," he said. Warren spoke only briefly with reporters before entering the conference chambers where since Tuesday labor and management representatives had been deadlocked in efforts to settle a 12-day strike that threatens to extend to involve 250,000 workers. Some 35,000 are on strike now. "I am here at the request of Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach," Warren told reporters. Earlier Justice William L. Knous, chairman of the three-member conciliation panel conducting the conferences, said the labor secretary had informed him indirectly he felt "great concern" over the deadlock.

Tension mounted over the nation's spreading labor strife today as the army of idle workers over labor disputes skyrocketed to near the two million mark.

The over-all labor dispute was the worst in months. The strike list, below the 100,000 mark most of the year preceding V-J Day, bulged as hundreds of thousands of workers were forced off their jobs by disputes, some of them fresh outbreaks.

A quick survey along the troubled labor front showed:

More than 1,850,000 workers of their jobs, some 370,000 idle by strikes, the others hit indirectly by the stoppages.

An apparent deadlock appeared in the Chicago conference of Oil Industry and CIO union leaders with federal conciliators amidst threats of a nation-wide strike of oil workers which would add 250,000 more to the strike lines. Some 35,000 workers are on strike in seven states, demanding a 50 per cent wage increase.

For the fourth day New York City struggled in the grip of a single strike which paralyzed business and industrial activity at an estimated loss of millions of dollars in trade and wages, and inconvenienced hundreds of thousands.

The strike by about 15,000 AFL elevator operators and building service employees threatened to spread.

Across the country in the Pacific northwest, where 60,000 AFL lumber workers are striking, a CIO union continued policy meetings, but did not issue a strike call to its 40,000 workers.

Additional coal miners left their jobs in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, bringing the total of miners idle in the two states to more than 35,000. The strike-idle in Pennsylvania alone mounted to around 75,000, including 33,500 at four Westinghouse Electric Company plants. Fifty-eight bituminous pits were closed.

Elsewhere across the country in metropolitan areas and in smaller communities, labor issues held the attention of union and management.

In Detroit, plagued for months by strikes and shutdowns and currently having some 90,000 idle, CIO-United Automobile Workers

Washington, Sept. 27.—(P)—American officials working out plans to help Britain are said to favor a loan of $5,000,000,000. It would be at very low interest rate and without strings on where the money would be spent.

Whether a plan along this line finally is presented to Congress will depend on further Anglo-American negotiations and formal acceptance of the idea by the London and Washington governments.

Trade talks that have been underway here several weeks still are in the stage of exploring just what Britain's financial troubles are and exactly what help may be needed. Nevertheless, opinion among American negotiators is fairly well formed on the main points.

Thus, on the word of fully-informed authorities it is possible that the situation today stands as follows:

The essence of Britain's trouble is that she has to exist for the next three years or more while re-converting to a profitable peacetime trade.

Squads of federal police with long lists of wanted persons systematically covered this capital of 2,500,000 as the dragnet tightened here and elsewhere over the country.

The decree which deprives Argentines of their civil rights came unexpectedly as the climax to a period of mounting opposition to the military regime of President Gen. Edelmiro Farrell and Col. Juan Peron, vice president and strong man of Argentina. It followed by 24 hours the suppression of an uprising by the military garrison at Cordoba.

Similar action suspending constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech, press and assembly was taken in 1941, but the siege was lifted last July, when Farrell promised to call a general election before the end of the year.

Employes of the Conestoga Transportation Co., at Lancaster voted 96-4 to accept an agreement worked out in management-labor conferences. The decision ended a 26-day disruption of bus and trolley service in the community and removed threat of a general "labor holiday" by 20,000 AFL and CIO Workers in Lancaster county.

In the soft coal fields of western Pennsylvania, 52 mines were idle and 24,820 men were jobless in walkouts springing from the strike of a few hundred supervisory employees demanding recognition of the United Clerical, Technical and Supervisory Employees of the Mining Industry, a UMWA affiliate.

Another 6,360 in 19 mines were idle for the same reason in nearly West Virginia, although three small mines there, employing 900, returned to work.

At Youngstown, Ohio, the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. said its coke oven operations were cut 75 per cent because of coal and fuel oil shortages. The company announced closing of three blast furnaces and seven open hearths and said its Mesmer operations

Two of Pennsylvania's work stoppages ended today, with 2,200 men agreeing to return to their jobs.

New moves were made to settle disputes which kept another 73,000 workers idle.

The Pennsylvania Rubber Company at Jeannette announced its 2,000 employees voted last night to end their 22-day-old walk-out and resume production of auto tires. The company said it would arbitrate the dismissal of one worker, which led to the strike.

Youth Escapes Blaze In Bed Without Hurts

Virgil Fellows, 20, 10 Clark street, had a narrow escape from death from smoke fumes and fire this morning shortly before one o'clock. Fellows had gone to his room for the night using candles to light his way. Wax from the candles dripped onto a 2 x 4 on the plate around the building and ignited. Noting the smoke and fire Fellows extinguished it. Later after he had gotten into bed and had fallen asleep other members of the family smelled smoke and investigated.

They found that the bed covering was smouldering and giving off dense smoke and that flames would have soon started. Fellows was roused and a fire alarm was turned in. Firemen extinguished the fire with little loss.

The house is a two family affair owned by the county commissioners and owned by the family of Mrs. M. Madigan and that of Mrs. Earl Fellows.

There was little loss in the fire and practically none to the building.

Fire Chief Albaugh has drawn attention to conditions at the home by a letter sent today to the county commissioners.

MERELY WAITING FOR TRAIN

Warren entertained a visitor last night and while it was not an overly good night from an atmospheric standpoint the visitor enjoyed himself and slept rather late. Ensnared in one of the picnic tables in Crescent playgrounds he slumbered until dawn arrived. Nurses from the Hospital sighted him and phoned the copers. One gendarm hied to the spot and applied the hot foot. "Merely waiting for my train" explained the tourist with a thumb jerk toward the Pennsy tracks. "Well climb the bank and get aboard" replied the copper and unwrapping himself from the newspaper coverlets the tourist sleepily mumbled "Goodbye" and gathered up his impedimenta he climbed the bank. Two intoxicated citizens slumbered in the cells last night at the police station and this morning appeared to tell their troubles to Justice Greenlund.

Another feature of the placing of the bridge at FN tower would clear the way for river division trains to reach the proposed tunnel under the hill to Venturetown which would be required with the building of the Kinzua flood control dam. It would greatly facilitate movement of trains to the tunnel which would undoubtedly be a busy piece of trackage once the dam is in place.

The post war plans of the Pennsylvania railroad for the local divisions will undoubtedly cause some large developments as the war has pointed out the need of better facilities from Erie eastward by the Pennsylvania. Huge new ore and grain docks and other improvements are planned at Erie, all of which would cause more freight to flow over the local divisions and add to the demands for better facilities and the use of heavier equipment.

Burnette To Two-Day Fair Be In Altoona Set For Tiona After Monday During 1946

While the movie is in the nature of a promotion and a return to his own home town, many friends and associates here will learn with regret that C. S. Burnette, Western Union manager, has been transferred to Altoona effective October 1.

Mr. Burnette, known to most of his friends as "Slim," came to Warren April 18, 1941 from Wheeling, W. Va., relieving W. A. Crow in the local office. He soon identified himself with many community affairs, principal of which were activities of the Kiwanis Club and of the Lutheran church.

He has served Kiwanis Club in many capacities, as a director, as chairman of the bulletin committee, and as member of attendance and publicity committees. Membership and active attendance at the church has included the presidency of Dr. Frantz Sunday school class and participation in other church events. Another interest has been the YMCA. Boy Scout Troop 7, which he served last year as Scoutmaster and of which he is now a troop committee man.

He and his son, Roger, will leave Sunday for Altoona, reporting for his new assignment on Monday morning.

Mr. Burnette, another son and their twin daughters, are remaining here at 310 East Fifth avenue, until an Altoona residence has been selected.

REFORM OF AXIS POWERS GAINS MOMENTUM

DeWitt MacKenzie, Associated Press Foreign Affairs Writer

Emperor Hirohito's descent from his throne to present himself before Supreme Commander MacArthur—in effect an act of submission by a defeated head of state to his conqueror—ranks among the major events which are ushering in the new world era.

This unprecedented development may well serve to break the spell of imperial mysticism under which the Japanese have been ruled for 2,000 years by mikados to whom they have attributed divinity. It may herald the advent of rule by the people.

Imagine what the disclosure of this meeting will mean to the millions who never have dared even to raise their eyes to gaze directly upon their emperor. We see him arrive in his automobile at the American embassy, immaculate in morning suit and silk hat. His dignified grand chamberlain backs out of the car, head lowered and face towards the emperor, and bows the great personage out to the sidewalk.

And then we see the mikado, silk hat in hand, brought before MacArthur. The general is studiously garbed in ordinary field khaki. He even wears his shirt open at the throat, without a tie. And not one of his many medals is on him.

It's easy to believe that this may do much to shock medieval Japan out of its trance. Certainly it may be expected to spur the current talk of possible abdication by the mikado, or at least his abandonment of temporary power to make way for the inauguration of a popular form of government. This needn't disturb his position as spiritual head—if the people want him.

Along with this dramatic turn, we get other indications of Allied progress in consolidating our victory over Germany and Japan. The simultaneous actions of Generals MacArthur and Eisenhower in tightening up their occupation controls provide significant answers to recent sharp criticism at home and abroad that the aggressor nations are being given too soft a peace.

The developments in both cases are aimed at speeding up attainment of the chief Allied war aims. These were to render the enemy utterly impotent militarily, and at the same time to destroy the militaristic mentality which, in the case of Germany, encompasses Hitlerism. The physical defeat has been achieved, but the more difficult moral reform cannot be carried out until the two peoples have been made to understand that their countries have been smashed.

Eric Johnston is, perhaps, the world's most active advocate of democratic capitalism. Therefore, it is not strange to find him using his appointment as president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America as a platform for telling the world about it. As head of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, he has been a missionary for enlightened capitalism and he knows how to do the job.

The successor to Will Hays visualizes the American movie as evangelizing the world for "peace and better living." The industry learned during the war the value of co-operative effort. Now Mr. Johnston wants its integral parts to point, as a sort of industrial democracy, in telling the world what a wonderful system democratic America has. This, he implies, can be done best when there are no strikes or layoffs. For, Mr. Johnston says:

"We may as well face the fact that there are other political and economic systems in the world, wholly different from ours, but which do have mass appeal, especially during time of industrial strife and stagnation. The only way to prove our system is better is to make it better."

Businessman as he is, Mr. Johnston naturally sees the movies as "America's greatest salesman." But the most important job he can do with them is to reflect America as it is. Thus, in foreign cinema houses, Hollywood's chief product can really become "ambassadors of goodwill."

With winter just around the corner, whatever became of the suggestion that the city get a couple of sidewalk plows and give the pedestrians a treat on snowy mornings? If Jamestown can keep all of its sidewalks cleaned, why can't it be done here?

What It Means

By SIDNEY A. GOVENAR

WASHINGTON — The whaling industry, once an important factor in the growth of the United States, has disappeared from this country. The Fish and Wildlife Service of the Interior Department reports that not one American company holds a whaling license.

Once before, in 1942, the U.S. whaling industry disappeared, but in 1943 a shore station was established in California with three ships to supply it with whales. This station operated in 1944 but did not renew its license this year.

Norway is now the world's most important whaling nation, according to the Interior Department. Recently Foreign Minister Lie of Norway announced that his country's whaling industry will be resumed this season.

Lie said at least five whaling expeditions are scheduled from his country and one from England. England will use one floating whaling "factory" seized from the Germans. All the 12 "factories" it owned before the war were lost in the battle of the Atlantic.

U. S. Was Leader

Before the war Europe's whaling industry was minute by comparison with the whaling industry of this country in the middle of the last century. The U.S. industry then engaged some 735 ships and 40,000 men. It represented an investment of $40,000,000 and involved an annual take of whales worth about $3,000,000. "These figures," an Interior report says, "tell the story of the birth of a great industry through three causes.

The Interior report adds that if new products and new uses for whales could be developed in the United States whaling might be revived here.

"Norway and other European countries refine and hydrogenate whale oil so that it can be used for edible purposes. A number of other new whale products developed in other countries might be cited," the report says.

"In the United States, however, such products are made from other sources, and whaling is not profitable here in normal times even if whales were plentiful."

The whale has come "dangerously close to extinction," according to the Interior Department.

The petroleum industry took away the market for illuminating oil and lubricants. The steel industry took away the market for whalebone, used in manufacturing such articles as corsets, umbrellas, and whips.

And there are now available in this country cheap substitutes for all but two products of the whale: spermaceti wax, used in cosmetics, and ambergris, a fixative in perfume.

Don Washburn Heading Bill at Outing Club

Don Washburn, who is hailed as a veritable Danny Kay, Emmett Kelly, and a wise cracker de luxe will head the floor show at the Marconi Outing Club over the weekend. Don has had 'em laughing all over the Pittsburgh territory and when he is on the bill the spectators are warned not to have a cracked lip or they are going to split it wide open. He has a novelty act that is a sure fire hit and is pronounced a sure fire giggle and belly laugh riot.

With him will be a bit of pulchritude in the person of Juliet Carter a lovely acrobatic dancer. She is one of the girls with seemingly no bones and of the exotic type to which anyone would be glad to play Romeo. Buddy Fisher a South American tapster doing all sorts of the rapid fire Latin American numbers with taps will be the third party in the plait of entertaining Warrenites.

The Marconi is tops in providing entertainment for the jaded Warren folk and the Fiesta room of the downtown club has caught on well with its music in the rhythmic manner from the cossol of the Solovox played by Van Tasse. The Fiesta room is proving popular with couples down town in the evening who drop in for a bit of dancing.

Auditioning For Succeeding Series Of Radio Dramas

Anyone who is interested in auditions for the radio dramas to be presented over WJTN by Warren Players on October 7th and 14th is asked to get in touch with Olive Archibald Huff, the director of the new radio series, this week. The selection for the presentation on the 7th will be announced tomorrow and the casting will be completed by Saturday.

"The Marriage Proposal," the first of the series sponsored by the Metzger-Wright Company, will be heard over WJTN on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The colorful and amusing Russian farce has been adapted for special radio presentation, with Margaret Lewis, Byron Knapp, and S. M. McClure playing the three Russian characters.

The play was originally presented by the Warren Players as a special production when Director Vincent, of the Erie Playhouse, was a guest of the club. Florence Knapp was the director and the gram. As a member of the Divisional Headquarters Staff in Pittsburgh he will assist in the administering of this program for the 37 Corps Centers located in the 26 counties of Western Penna.

Mrs. Major Fahey, formerly Captain Mildred Parker, is the daughter of the retired National Commander, Commissioner and Mrs. Edward J. Parker. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Fahey served in several Field appointments, later being transferred to New York headquarters to develop athletic programs and Scout work. A graduate of Bouvo School of Physical Education in Boston, Mass., Mrs. Fahey taught school for a number of years before entering the Salvation Army Training College in New York City and taking up officehip in the organization.

Major Fahey is an active, energetic Salvation Army leader, and is able to qualify to carry on all phases of Salvation Army pro-

All of the preliminary plans are complete and sub-chairmen will be announced tomorrow for the October 13th party. The co-chairmen have called a meeting of all their chairmen for next Monday evening at 7:30 in the basement conference room of the Warren public library. It is important that everyone be present.

Because of the size of the crowd at Saturday night's Hill-Billy party, the committee decided that it would be imperative to divide the age groups, because the school cannot adequately accommodate such a large crowd. The gymnasium, both game rooms, and the square dancing room were filled to capacity all evening. Adults dropping in were somewhat overwhelmed at the response of the young people to the community night programs.

The next party will be limited to young people who are in the high school building and out of school young people in their early twenties. An effort will be made to accommodate the younger group at a later date.

Saturday's party, with its Hill-Billy theme, certainly drew a crowd of young people, many of them in costume. The decorating committee again hit just the right note, especially with John Erickson's and Dick Kaufman's perfect Hill-Billy family cutouts.

The young people declared Bill Dobbs' Orchestra was "super" as they crowded around watching the band perform or made good use of the music on the floor. Teresa Fino was mistress of ceremonies for the occasion. The committee wishes to thank all members of the orchestra for their contribution to the evening's success.

The square dancing demonstration and the special room for instruction really got the young people interested in square dancing Saturday night. The committee is especially appreciative of the efforts of the caller, H. F. Fitzgerald and the music by H. C. Anderson and his daughters who donated their services for the community party.

YWCA Enrollment Day Is Successful

The second annual Y. W. C. A. Membership Enrollment Day was held yesterday. A good number came for the afternoon tea hour from 3:30 to 5:30 and others for the evening hour from 7:00 to 9:00.

The membership committee chairman, Mrs. Harold Smith and Mrs. Robert Trusler, report that 145 memberships have been taken care of to date, and that it is hoped others will mail theirs in promptly or bring them to the YWCA office by Saturday of this week.

An attractive tea table was arranged in the private dining room, with a pink chrysanthemum centerpiece flanked by white tapers. Other fall flowers were in evidence throughout the lobby, where members and friends were greeted. The suggestion box was used and it is hoped to fulfill the requested program ideas in the near future.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. who helped yesterday to make the second annual Membership Enrollment Day a success were: Miss Eunice Alexander, Mrs. K. M. Andrews, Mrs. L. E. You've heard them about the dossier!" Seth exclaimed excitedly. "It's great news. I haven't examined the contents, but Potter didn't have a chance to get away with it, and I'm sure everything will be intact. Just as it was handed to him."

"You can thank Cobo for that," Gardner observed quietly. "That little guy may slip up on routine police analysis some times, but when it comes to getting hold of the local situation, he's good. I think Cobo knew where he was hiding last night. He probably stopped him before I did."

A swift look of concern flashed over Suzy's face. Gardner noticed a tightness about her mouth although she managed to smile faintly.

First Evangelical Pastor Is Honored

About 75 members and friends of First Evangelical church gathered at the church last evening for a reception given to welcome Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Wygant back to the parish for their 13th year of service.

The membership committee chairman, Mrs. Harold Smith and Mrs. Robert Trusler, report that 145 memberships have been taken care of to date, and that it is hoped others will mail theirs in promptly or bring them to the YWCA office by Saturday of this week.

An attractive tea table was arranged in the private dining room, with a pink chrysanthemum centerpiece flanked by white tapers. Other fall flowers were in evidence throughout the lobby, where members and friends were greeted. The suggestion box was used and it is hoped to fulfill the requested program ideas in the near future.

Navy dispatches indicate, also, that another crew member is Quentin P. McCray, 24, radioman second class, of Corry.

From 15th RAF headquarters in Italy it is learned that Pfc. Kenneth Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Perry of Russell, is a member of the 531st Air Service Group which services the 99th Heavy Bombardment Group.

These men, a communiqué continues, will have an important task in the policing of the assigned section of Germany. It will be just as important for the tactical units to have their planes operational now as during the time of active campaigns and it will be the job of this service organization to keep them flying.

At present, Pfc. Perry is working as a truck driver. He attended High school at Leeper and prior to entering the army was employed in town. He entered the army here in September, 1942, and overseas in May, 1943. He wears the European-African theatre ribbon.

IS TRANSFERRED

Sgt. Delouris Anderson, of Russell RD 1, is home on a 45-day furlough from Camp Atterbury, Ind., spending his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson, Russell RD 1. At the end of his furlough he will report to Camp Campbell, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Seymour, 127 Russell street, have received word from their son, Corp. Merle Seymour, that he has arrived safely in Saipan. He left the country on August 29th.

Corp. Robert E. Sidon has returned to Camp Ellis, Ill., after a fifteen day furlough spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sidon, of Starbrick.

Captain Cook is faced with a problem. It seems he told members of the skit club how to conduct a harmless initiation campaign, and the boys have taken his advice as a result. The jail got a rough night, 196 over floors were scrubbed, furniture dusted, and curtains adorned the barred windows. Autumn promises.

BEHIND THE LINES

Basketball draws the largest number of attenders each year—more than baseball, softball, or any other sport. In pre-war years, the game, which has become highly modernized in the past five seasons, drew at least 90,000,000 paid attenders yearly, and the closest competitor was softball with an average yearly draw of 72 million. Game hunters form a very large percentage of the nation's sports followers, as do fishermen.

Speaking of basketball attendance, the Warren High 1944-45 court season drew top attendances. Not since the McKeegan-Wolfe-Zerbe combination performed for the Dragons have the Blue and Whitemen had such a large following.

to a 6-6 deadlock last Friday p. m.

Joe Scalise, whose probable discharge from the army has set high school basketball circles glowing, writes that he does not intend returning to high school if discharged. According to the ex-high scorer, he will enter college for further court trials.

The Warren Red Jackets will resume action in the fall of 1946. This announcement came yesterday from the management, which stated that, since many servicemen are being discharged and many more will be in the next ten months, prospects would be very good. It is possible that a six or seven-team league, made up of semi-pro elevens from Bradford, Jamestown, Oil City, and other surrounding towns, would be formulated.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—(A)—Slated to start at guard for Temple University in tomorrow's night game with Syracuse is a 17-year-old army veteran, Donald Godek of Philadelphia, Pa.

He enlisted when 14 and served four months before his parents could effect his release. He'll be wearing the number of his own choice—13.

Cincinnati Main Factor In National Race; Cubs Protest Yesterday's Cardinal Victory

Cincinnati's forlorn Reds, a seventh-place ball club that never was a factor in the National League race, probably will decide the pennant duel between the Chicago and St. Louis Cardinals.

Two games with the Rhinelanders today mean the difference between an early clinching or last day finish for Charlie Grimm's Bruins. Three Saturday and Sunday dates with the pesky Reds hold the key to Billy Southworth's hopes for a fourth straight St. Louis flag.

If the brok-beaten Cincys should kick over the traces and flatten the Cubs twice while the Cards whip the Buccos, Chicago's 1/2 game lead would melt into an all-even tie.

Grimm has protested yesterday's 11-6 loss to St. Louis on the ground that one umpire (Babe Pinelli) wasn't looking and another (Butch Henline) said he refused to change his mind despite an official reversal by umpire-in-chief Dusty Bodess, changing a double play into a St. Louis base hit.

After Whitey Kurowski opened the seventh inning with a single, Ray Sanders drove a long fly deep into right field that Bill Nicholson apparently caught as he hit the wall, dropped and caught again on the rebound. Kurowski had waited half way to second, to see whether the ball would be caught and then sped to second, waving Sanders back to first. Nicholson whipped the ball to second base.

An original decision ruled a double play, prompting a Cardinal protest, and a reversal gave Sanders a hit and placed both men on base, resulting in a long argument climaxed by Grimm's official protest.

Detroit polished off its home business for the year by splitting a pair with Cleveland, winning 11-0 behind Hal Newhouse, and losing 3-2 to Steve Gromek, an old Detroit boy.

The results assured the Tigers of a tie for first, even if they lose their final two at St. Louis Saturday and Sunday. Meanwhile, Washington continues to practice for a phantom foe, its only hope a double Brownie victory forcing a playoff Monday or Tuesday.

National League tilts found Brooklyn downing New York, 8-1, and Pittsburgh splitting a pair with Cincinnati. After the Reds had taken the opener, 5-2, behind Freshman John Hetski, the Pirates evened matters, 2-1, for Nick Strinevich's 16th victory.

The Dodgers clinched at least a tie for third by their triumph over the Giants.

The war trophy exhibit at the Sugar Grove Community Fair, under the able direction of Mrs. Marian Jenkins of Chandlers Valley, Mrs. Kathryn Ruggs and Mrs. Minerva Abbott of Sugar Grove was a huge success. Many people from the Valley exhibited their trophies, among them Nazi uniform exhibited by Mrs. Jenkins. Another interesting feature of the exhibit was the pictures of the servicemen from Sugar Grove and surrounding townships.

Mrs. Oliver Swanson entertained his guests one evening this week. Mr. and Mrs. George Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swanson

Collected In Final Pickup

"It was one of the fastest tin drives that have sent 17 carloads of the much needed tin cans to the cannery plant at Neville Island," said Salvage Chairman Wylie Corbett this morning commenting on yesterday's drive.

There were plenty of workers including men from various plants about the city and eleven Boy Scouts. The entire area was covered in about two hours due to the many trucks that had been donated. Mr. Corbett this morning stated that the cans were processed just a little better than usual and that when loaded into the huge freight car, tramped and shook down over 20 tons were in the car. It was the biggest car ever shipped from Warren.

The whole county took part in the drive and highway trucks brought in large numbers of cans. Some came from as far away as Forest county and Ludlow where the cans had not been moved. Mr. Corbett goes after the salvage material wherever it may be and some tin cans were even gathered up in Spartansburg.

This will be the final tin can drive. The need is great but due to the fact that the State Salvage Group is passing out of existence on October 1st, the county groups will be unable to continue to function.

However in many sections of the state the salvage work will be carried on by various organizations as it has been discovered just how much money can be realized from the sale of waste paper, rags, etc. There are reports that in this county one or two groups are preparing to carry on the work.

Mr. Corbett is preparing to assemble some valuable data showing how much work has been accomplished by his committee during the war years. Over 2000 carloads of salvaged materials were shipped and the cash income has been over half a million dollars which has been widely distributed over the county saving thousands of dollars for school districts, etc.

CHURCH

Ludlow, Sept. 24.—Regular services were held in Moriah Lutheran at eleven o'clock on Sunday with the Rev. Hans Pearson giving the sermon entitled "Freedom in Christ." The anthem which was sung by the choir was "God's Eternal Love." Luther League will be held at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening in the church parlors.

It is interesting to discover that the Rev. Pearson was represented in the Lutheran Companion for September 19, 1945, on the page called The Pulpit, with his sermon "Freedom in Christ."

The dedicatory service for the remodeled Sunday school room and kitchen was given on Friday evening at eight o'clock in Moriah Lutheran with the Rev. Carl Nelson of Wilcox giving the sermon. He opened his sermon with the Buick motto, "When better cars are built, Buick will build them," and changed it to the title "When better churches are built, Christians will build them." The meeting was conducted by Rev. Pearson and Scripture reading and prayer was given by Rev. Nordgreen of Kane. The regular choir gave two numbers, the Junior choir one number, a piano solo was given by Mrs. Enoch Nelson, and a brass instrument trio by Robert Johnson, Thomas and James Nelson accompanied by Mrs. Emil
